CASE NO. 06-318M

DETENTION ORDER

Offense charged:

Count I: Possession of Child Pornography

Date of Detention Hearing: June 20, 2006.

The Court, having conducted a contested detention hearing pursuant to Title 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), and based upon the factual findings and statement of reasons for detention hereafter set forth, finds that no condition or combination of conditions which the defendant can meet will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and the safety of any other person and the community. The Government was represented by Jill Otake. The defendant was represented by Robert Gombiner.

FINDINGS OF FACT AND STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR DETENTION

- (1) The defendant represents a risk of danger due to his criminal history which includes a conviction for this same offense six years ago; he was released from prison three years ago.
- (2) The defendant does not contest detention.

Thus, there is no condition or combination of conditions that would reasonably assure future court appearances.

It is therefore ORDERED:

- (1) Defendant shall be detained pending trial and committed to the custody of the Attorney General for confinement in a correctional facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences, or being held in custody pending appeal;
- (2) Defendant shall be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with counsel;
- (3) On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the correctional facility in which Defendant is confined shall deliver the defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding; and
- (4) The clerk shall direct copies of this order to counsel for the United States, to counsel for the defendant, to the United States Marshal, and to the United States Pretrial Services Officer.

DATED this 20th day of June, 2006.

MONICA J. BENTON
United States Magistrate Judge
